Land and House Blessings: Energy Healing for the Soul, the Land and the Home

- ✧ As you begin your lives together, bless the dwelling in which you will share your love within.
- ✧ Homes new and old may be blessed and honored as a dwelling place of love and respect for one another and for all those who will live within.
- ✧ A House Blessing is an ancient custom that has been rekindled as a way of honoring the home which you will share your lives together as a family, and an energy releasing with respect of any old negative residue from the past.
- ✧ A Land Blessing allows you to honor Mother Earth, to put your energy, your personal blessing, your hope and dreams for what together you and this land can co-create with you as its steward.
