Personalized Wedding and Commitment Ceremonies

A Wedding Blessing ©

✧ We believe that this is your day and that the lives you share together should begin with a divinely inspired ceremony that radiates the love you share within your minds, bodies, hearts, souls and spirits.

✧ We can assist you in creating your own ceremony with the option of having a formal or informal service that allows you to express the love you have for one another.

✧ Our ordained ministers respect and honor all religious and spiritual traditions and the beautiful ways each tradition emphasizes different aspects of the mystical interaction with our Creator.

“May Our Lives Together Be

Blessed With Love and Respect.”
